

You can be a part of Virginia Equine history by naming a stall in the new Southern States Legends Stall Barn

In 2003, SFVA (The State Fair of Virginia, Inc.) purchased The Meadow, the Chenery Family Thoroughbred horse farm in Caroline County, Virginia. From 1936 to 1979, the Chenery Family bred and raced some of the finest Thoroughbred racehorses in America. In 1972, the Chenery-bred Riva Ridge won the Kentucky Derby and the Belmont, Incredibly, the following year Thoroughbred racing sensation Secretariat surpassed Riva Ridge's performance by becoming the first horse in twenty-five years to win the Triple Crown, shattering all three track records and catapulting the Chenery Family and The Meadow into international fame.

A major portion of The Meadow Event Park is dedicated to the Equine Complex. Centrally located and currently featuring four show rings and the first of two Southern States Legends Stall Barns as part of Phase I, it is preserving open space for hosting equestrian events and providing a showcase for Virginia's equine industry.

You have the once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to be a part of history and the preservation of a legacy by supporting the SFVA Campaign for The Meadow through a tax-deductible charitable contribution to The Meadow Event Park project. Your gift will help construct the Equine Complex, and a stall will be recognized in honor of you or a horse, person, companion animal, organization, or business of your choosing through a highly visible 6" x 8" plaque on a stall in the 143-stall Southern States Legends Stall Barn.

- One stall is $1,500, two or more stalls are $1,250 each; pledges may be fulfilled over several years ($500/year minimum).
- A stall "purchase" constitutes a contribution to SFVA, a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) organization and is tax deductible as allowed by IRS.
